

The Acclaim Awards Italian Opera Fellowship 2018

The Acclaim Awards (Acclaim) have been operating since 1989. The Core Purpose of Acclaim is “To identify and provide vocal training and international experience to young Australian talent who the Awards believe are the strongest candidates for a significant international operatic career.” The Acclaim Awards has been focussed for a long time on placing leading young Australian bel canto opera singers onto the world stage. Acclaim’s slogan is at the core of Acclaim’s purpose, to provide young Australian artists with “a ticket to the world stage.”

For two weeks in September and October 2018, Acclaim will conduct its annual Italian Opera Masterclass Series. Acclaim are offering the opportunity for young Australian opera singers to compete in the Masterclass for a chance to win a fully funded study Fellowship to Italy.

The Acclaim Masterclass Series will commence on Monday 24th September and conclude on Saturday 6th October 2018. The venue will be the Camberwell Grammar School, 55 Mont Albert Road Canterbury, Victoria.

The winner of the 2018 Acclaim Fellowship will be announced at the conclusion of the Masterclass Series at an Acclaim Awards Dinner which will be held on the evening of Saturday 6th October 2018. All finalists are required to attend and perform.

Purpose of the Fellowship and profile of the participant

The objective of the Acclaim Fellowship is to prepare and train the artist so that they will be able to achieve an international opera career. The fellowship awardees will be given the opportunity to follow a highly specialized course, with the purpose of improving their Italian language, musical, technical, staging, stylistic and interpretive skills as well as the expansion of cultural knowledge necessary to perform on the international stage.

The Acclaim Fellowship is reserved for candidates with significant musical abilities, a strong dedication to the profession and a solid theoretical and technical base. An annual Fellowship will not be awarded by Acclaim if they do not believe there is a suitable candidate.

Key Components

The key components of the Acclaim Awards Italian Opera Fellowship include some or all of the following:

- Individual voice teaching – singing, breathing, technical, stylistic, etc;
- Teaching of Italian language. The Program is designed for the artist to be able to achieve perfect enunciation, pronunciation and diction in Italian for opera performances. It is strongly focused on immersion and theoretical learning;
- Enrolment at a short term or perhaps a year-long Accademia Program (e.g. Accademia Teatro alla Scala; Accademia del Maggio Musicale Fiorentino; Accademia dell’Opera di Bologna] (personally tailored to the Fellowship Awardee)
- Attend professional opera performances in Italy;
- Applications to Italian and other selected international opera competitions;
- Developing artist’s promotional tapes;
- Introductions to selected international agents;
- Arranging international auditions;
- Assistance in establishing and negotiating international contracts.

The Acclaim Awards Partners

The Acclaim Awards is proud to work with some of the most significant and elite individuals and organisations in the Italian opera world. The Acclaim Awards Italian partners include the following:

- The Teatro Regio (Turin)
- Accademia Teatro alla Scala (Milan)
- Accademia del Maggio Musicale Fiorentino (Florence)
- Opera Accademia de Bologna (Bologna)
- Professor Valerio Esposito [Conservatorio Statale di Musica Gioachino Rossini - Pesaro]
- Maestro Carlo Morganti [Teatro GB Pergolesi-Jesi]

Previous Winners

Since 1989, the Acclaim Awards has been fortunate to have worked with and provided funding/scholarships to many talented artists and to be able to assist them in their development towards an international opera career. Some of these artists have included:

- Antoinette Halloran
- Siobhan Stagg
- Nathan Lay
- Nicole Car
- Emily Burke
- Kiandra Howarth
- Stacey Alleaume
- Michelle Buscemi
- Tomas Dalton
- Michelle Cook
- Adrian Tamburini
- Elena Zanthoudakis

Applications

The Acclaim Awards invite all members of the Australian Opera community (Performers, Executives, Patrons, Conservatories, Colleges, Students and Teachers) to encourage talented individuals who meet the criteria to apply for the competition.

Any suitably qualified individual, anywhere in Australia, is warmly encouraged to send an Application for the Acclaim Masterclass Series for an opportunity to compete in the Acclaim Awards Italian Opera Fellowship.

An Entry form is attached to this document.

Competition Eligibility

The Acclaim Fellowship is open to any:

- Bel Canto Opera singer;
- Australian citizen;
- Person aged between 18 and 32 as at 30th July;
- Singer who has had some professional performance experience;
- Singer with 2 Italian Bel Canto arias prepared;
- Singer who can provide documentation of musical and vocal training at a public or private institution;
- Singer who commits to attend at least 70% of the teaching components of the Acclaim Masterclasses.

A submission of a signed Application Form with the required Preliminary Audition CD/DVD or YouTube link must be received by Acclaim in Melbourne no later than 20 July 2018. Full Applications can be sent by mail or email.

Fellowship Applications can be made every year, providing the individual still meets the criteria.

On acceptance to the Masterclass Series, all finalists must sign a contract with Acclaim agreeing that if they are successful in winning the Acclaim Fellowship they will:

- Undertake the Program within 18 months of the award date or forfeit the award;
- Travel for a single period to Italy of no less than 8-10 weeks;
- Undertake all teaching and activities provided during the Program.

Non-compliance with any of the above could mean forfeiture of the Fellowship and in the that event the awardee may be required to refund some of the prize money.

Application Requirements

As the number of participants is limited, registration will not automatically grant a place in the Masterclass Series. All Fellowship Applicants will be judged for the most ideal suitability from All Applications received that year. Applicants must submit:

- A completed Application form;
- A CD/DVD or YouTube link of their performance of two Italian arias (with piano accompaniment only);
- A written submission of at least 500 words detailing their opera career objectives and why the Acclaim Fellowship would be an important component in achieving their career development;
- Copy of their Curriculum Vitae;
- Two recent high-resolution quality headshot colour photos of the applicant;
- An application fee of $50.

The Acclaim Awards Masterclass Series objectives are to:

1. Provide teaching by one of the world's foremost sopranos and teachers, Professor Valeria Esposito;
2. Enable the participants to compete for the Acclaim Awards Italian Opera Fellowship.

During the Acclaim Awards Masterclass Series each Competitor will receive ten days of teaching sessions. These sessions are valued at approximately $2,500 for each competitor.

The Masterclasses are designed so that all 10 finalists receive the significant benefit of the intensive one-on-one teaching by Professor Valeria Esposito whether or not they are successful in winning the Fellowship.

Spectators are welcome to attend the Masterclasses and they are open to Acclaim Awards friends and families, supporters and Acclaim Patrons.

THE SELECTION PROCESS

Stage 1. The first stage involves submitting a signed Application Form together with a Preliminary Audition CD/DVD/YouTube link presentation.

The Preliminary Audition CD/DVD/YouTube presentation must include two contrasting arias with piano accompaniment (only) to be sung in Italian. Two copies of a CD/DVD are required.

The CD/DVD/YouTube will be reviewed by Acclaim as a Stage 1 Preliminary Selection Process. Up to 10 Finalists will be selected for the Masterclass Series.

The Acclaim Awards will assess and judge all Fellowship Applicants based on the following criteria:

- Quality of the voice
- Vocal technique
- Age and Potential
- Musical skill and knowledge
- Artistic interpretation
- Demonstration of comprehension of the pieces
- Italian Language skill

Successful Finalists will be invited to compete in the Masterclass Series commencing on Monday September 24th 2018.

If no candidate is identified during the annual Masterclass Series as meeting all the criteria, then Acclaim will not award a Fellowship.

Stage 2. Professor Esposito will evaluate and judge those she believes would best benefit from the Acclaim Fellowship. Finalists will also be judged on their responsiveness to lesson instructions.

At the conclusion of the final masterclass session, each finalist will perform one selected aria of their choice for Professor Esposito. The aria must be Italian Bel Canto and no longer than five minutes.

An Acclaim Awards Dinner will be held on Saturday 6th October 2018. All finalists will be required to attend the evening and perform. At the conclusion of the dinner the results of the selection process will be announced.
